Duties & Responsibilities:	Position starting August 2025 ISA is looking for a suitably qualified Science teacher to join its teaching team for a part time role starting August 2025 (temporary short term cover) covering classes in science. All teachers take an advisory class or support advisory in the mornings. We prioritise relationships and care, in an inclusive setting. Flexibility in teaching assignments will be expected, but the main teaching will be Middle School Science. Inquiry-based instruction will be differentiated to meet student needs across the learning continuum. The teacher will also be required to develop, review and revise planning in the School's curriculum mapping tool (Atlas Rubicon), incorporating the school's learning statement in lessons and assessment. The teacher will also participate in professional development and the after-school activities programme as appropriate to their part time timetable. They will establish and maintain positive relationships with other members of the school staff, showing strong collaborative skills, and communicate effectively with parents. They will attend relevant meetings and support the building of a strong sense of community at the school. Participation in parent conferences, curriculum review activities and professional development days is expected of all faculty.
Further Details:	A Disclosure Scotland PVG Membership application will be undertaken on behalf of the successful applicant; cost to be met by the employer. Due to the short turn around, the applicant must have registration with GTC Scotland in place. The employer will meet the cost of the employee's work visa, but not any associated costs, and not the cost of dependent visas.
Application:	Candidates should send a cover letter to Stuart MacAlpine (Principal of MS HS) as well as completing our online application form [Link] . Please note the form needs to be completed in one sitting so you may wish to draft responses before entering information.
